

CDG Overview

Deborah Driskill
President and CEO

Deborah Driskill carries on her mother's legacy and vision of creating a company that is a best place to work, which in turn results in a company that repeatedly excels in providing excellent client service to companies all over the nation. Cynthia Driskill's entrepreneurial spirit transformed CDG & Associates from a small team of specialized consultants to a national leader in human resource information system consulting and one of the most awarded companies of its kind.

Cynthia Driskill founded CDG in 1981 when she hung out her shingle as an independent consultant. By 1987, with more work than she alone could handle, Driskill hired her first four employees across her kitchen table, and CDG & Associates was born. The company has since been recognized with numerous awards including Ernst & Young's Southwest Area 2000 Entrepreneur of the Year Award, the 2001 National General Excellence award by Working Woman Magazine, the Small Business Administration's 2001 Small Businessperson of the Year award, the 2002 Greater Dallas Society of Financial Services Professionals Business Ethics Award, the North Dallas Chamber of Commerce's 2001 Small Business of the Year award, among many others. All of these testify to the company's high standards, which are reflected in its client service.

The company has a longstanding commitment to the community as well as to client excellence. The company is able to boast an incredible 89% client return rate, and counts numerous prestigious organizations among its loyal client base. Deborah Driskill states, "We put our money where our mouth is. We are the only company that can 'Guarantee a Go-Live!' for your HR system."
