

Ernst & Young LLP and the Dallas Arboretum congratulate the 2007 Celebration of Diversity Award finalists!

Most Innovative Diversity Program—Corporation

BNSF Railway
CDG
Citi
Turner Construction Company
Univision

Workplace of the Year—Corporation

Accor Hospitality
BNSF Railway
JCPenney Company, Inc.
Puente-Brancato Enterprises, Inc.
Weil Gotshal & Manges LLP

Inclusiveness Champion of the Year—Corporate Individual

Hattie Hill, CEO – Hattie Hill Enterprises, Inc.
Mark King, Director, Diversity & Inclusion – Brinker International
Alice Rodriguez, Executive Vice President – JPMorgan Chase
Cheryl Stevens, Vice President, Workforce and Supplier Diversity – TXU
Gwen Wilson, Program Director, Supplier Diversity – Verizon Wireless

Non-Profit Organization of the Year

Booker T. Washington High School
Dallas Dinner Table
Greenhill School
LIFT – Literacy Instruction for Texas
Mi Escuelita Preschool

Inclusiveness Champion of the Year—Non-Profit Individual

Dolores Barzune
Dennis Kennedy, Founder – Texas Diversity Council
Margo Posey, President – DFW Minority Business Council
CiCi Rojas, President and CEO – Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
Anne Marie Weiss-Armush, Executive Director – DFW International Community Alliance

Dallas Arboretum

Winners will be announced at the Celebration of Diversity Awards banquet on June 7 in the Grand Pavilion of the Dallas Trade Mart. Tables of 10 ($1,000) and individual tickets ($75) are still available. Please contact Katie McGee at 214-969-9876 or katie.mcgee@ey.com for more information. Proceeds from the 2007 Celebration of Diversity Awards will benefit diversity and education programs at the Dallas Arboretum.